What is CASING DRILLING?

Casing drilling is an alternative option for drilling that uses standard oilfield casing instead of a drillstring (known as simultaneous drilling and casing). This technology is one of the greatest developments in drilling operations.

What size casing bushing for a rotary table?

Spectrum Drilling Tools International makes a wide range of Casing Bushing suitable for 27.1/2", and 37.1/2" Rotary Tables. Casing Bushing Bowls are used to accommodate different casing ranges. Casing Bushing can be used with Casing Bushing Bowls No. 1, 2, 3 & 16 to lower different sizes of casing pipes. Bowl No. 16 for 16" tubular.

What is CASING DRILLING with retrievable system?

Casing drilling with retrievable system deploys LWD tools to log the well during drilling operations. This provides substantial advantage by eliminating the need to pull the casing before logging. However, the BHA is reduced. This technique allows it to acquire logs after reaching to TD without pulling or manipulating the casing string.
