

Peregrino drilling rig

Oilfield services and technology company SLB and Equinor have drilled the most-autonomous well section to-date at Peregrino C platform ...

The document focuses on Statoil's Peregrino development project offshore Brazil, which began production in early 2011. Peregrino has estimated recoverable reserves of 300-600 million ...

The Peregrino FPSO unit was built by converting a very large crude carrier (VLCC) named Maersk Nova. Measuring 332.8m-long, 58m-wide, and ...

Special Equipment for Drilling an Oil Well in an Oil Field. Workover Rig Working on a Previously Drilled Well Trying To Restore Stock Photo - Image of ...

The development plan involves increasing the number of production wells in the new area by drilling 15 oil producers and 6 water ...

Norwegian oil and gas major Equinor has achieved production of the first oil from the Peregrino phase 2 project in the offshore Campos Basin in ...

RDS, the engineering arm of drilling contractor KCA Deutag, has been contracted by Norway's oil company Statoil to carry out the Front End Engineering Design (FEED) for a ...

Equinor has awarded Archer a new two-year contract for platform drilling services at the Peregrino heavy oil field in the Campos Basin offshore ...

The document focuses on Statoil's Peregrino development project offshore Brazil, which began production in early 2011. Peregrino has estimated recoverable ...

Peregrino Phase 2 consists of a new platform with drilling facilities and living quarters tied in to the existing Peregrino FPSO, as well as a new pipeline importing gas to the ...

After the combination of its digital technologies for surface automation, autonomous on-bottom drilling, and directional drilling enabled ...

Equinor Brasil Energia, a subsidiary of Equinor, has entered into agreements with Brazilian company Prio Tigris, a subsidiary of PRIO, for the sale of its 60% operated interest in ...

(WO) --SLB announced a significant step toward fully autonomous drilling operations at Equinor's Brazilian

Peregrino drilling rig

Peregrino C platform. SLB digital ...

Modules for Equinor's Peregrino Phase II drilling facility have begun a journey to Texas where it will be stacked and tested before being shipped to ...

Statoil has named RDS to perform front-end engineering design for a fixed drilling rig to be part of Peregrino Phase 2 development offshore Brazil.

HOUSTON, January 30, 2024 --SLB (NYSE: SLB) today announced a significant step toward fully autonomous drilling operations at Equinor's Brazilian Peregrino C platform. SLB digital ...

Fossil Energy - Drilling SLB today announced a significant step toward fully autonomous drilling operations at Equinor's Brazilian Peregrino C platform. SLB digital ...

D.M.B. Construction LLC is a contracting firm that provides industrial, civil, structural, mechanical, oil field, offshore and shop fabrication services. We ...

Drilling rig modules for Peregrino Phase II BigLift's Happy Sky and Happy Dynamic have transported the modules for a drilling rig which will be deployed at the Peregrino Phase II ...

Oil services company Schlumberger, signed a contract with Norwegian firm Equinor (formerly Statoil) to manage a drilling-rig at Brazil's offshore Campos ...

Offshore staff STAVANGER, Norway - Statoil and partner Sinochem have submitted the plan of development for the Peregrino Phase 2 ...

Equinor has informed that modules for the Peregrino Phase II drilling facility began its journey to Brazil for stacking and testing.

Peregrino Phase 1 consists of an FPSO supported by the Peregrino A and Peregrino B wellhead production platforms. Since coming on ...

The first phase of the development includes two drilling and wellhead platforms and a ship-shaped floating production, storage and off-take unit (FPSO) called Maersk Peregrino built in Singapore.

The platform combines apps, AI, physics-based science and free-flowing data to accelerate and improve exploration, development, drilling, production, and new energy ...

Norwegian oil and gas giant Equinor has produced the first batch of oil in the Peregrino Phase II project in the Campos basin off Brazil. The second stage ...

Peregrino drilling rig

Platform C is connected to the existing Peregrino FPSO and includes 15 production wells and six water injector wells. The platform was installed in January 2020, and the hook-up and ...

Web: <https://kwa-andries.co.za>