

Planned drill rig deployment solgold

How many holes will SolGold drill at tandayama?

SolGold will launch a targeted 5 400-m drill campaign at Tandayama in early May, deploying three rigs to drill up to 15 holes, including 11 high-priority targets.

Is dual-listed SolGold pursuing an early production strategy?

etc. Dual-listed SolGold is pursuing an early production strategy that prioritises open-pit and sub-level caving opportunities at its Cascabel copper/gold project in Ecuador, aiming to accelerate cash flow generation ahead of full-scale development of the flagship Alpala deposit.

Does SolGold have a re-set strategy?

BISHOPSGATE, LONDON / ACCESS Newswire / April 15, 2025 / SolGold plc ("SolGold" or "the Company") (LSE:SOLG) (TSX:SOLG) announces that as part of SolGold's previously announced re-set strategy it is investigating options for early production from open-pit and sub-level caving opportunities in and around Cascabel.

Why is SolGold working with G mining services?

SolGold is working closely with study manager G Mining Services on various trade off studies to potentially expedite the Cascabel project, particularly in the areas of tails and waste rock management, power supply and improving underground access, mining and milling efficiencies and metallurgical recoveries.

How long does it take to drill a hole?

Drilling is expected to take about three months, with assay results due roughly a month later. Under the plan, two rigs will be assigned to six priority holes in the southern area known as Pit 1.

Two additional drilling rigs are now on site at Cacharposa, with Rig 2 sited approximately 230m west-northwest of PDH-20-001 and Rig 3 sited approximately 200m south of PDH-20-001. Rig ...

The drilling strategy includes setting two rigs for 6 priority holes on the southern pit 1, one rig on pit 2 in the north for 4 priority holes, and two ...

Assay results from drill holes 8-10 are pending and drilling of Holes 9 and 10 is currently underway. Drilling at TAM continues with three diamond drill rigs and further ...

Planned Drill Rig Deployment Solgold is continuing to deploy multiple drilling rigs at Cascabel. Currently there are three operational rigs at the project and upgraded infrastructure ...

The program is expected to commence in early May 2025, utilising three drilling rigs to establish resources in the measured and indicated categories, define limits to near ...

Planned drill rig deployment solgold

A second drill rig is planned to be mobilised to Cacharposa Creek later this month, and sited approximately 200m west-northwest of PDH-20-001 with a view to test the central ...

Intensive diamond drilling is planned for the next 12 months with multiple drill rigs. This has been completed without lost time injury or environmental incident, employing a workforce of up to ...

Solgold is continuing to deploy multiple drilling rigs at Cascabel. Currently there are three operational rigs at the project and upgraded infrastructure and services will enable the ...

Suspension of this drilling program allowed redirection of the drill rig to the priority Porvenir project. Technical reviews to better understand the style and geometry of ...

A second drill rig is planned to be mobilised to Cacharposa Creek utilising helicopter support later this week. The hole is planned to be sited approximately 230m west ...

SolGold (LSE: SOLG) is pleased to provide an update on progress for its flagship Cascabel Copper-Gold Project ('Cascabel' or the 'Project') in northern Ecuador.

SolGold subsidiaries have received all regulatory drilling permits for Target 15 (Porvenir), Target 6 (La Hueca), Cerro Quiroz (Blanca). Drill rigs and equipment are being ...

Figure 3: Drill plan at the Tandayama-America Porphyry Copper-Gold Target, Cascabel Drilling showing planned and actual drill holes over background soil Mo anomalism. ...

Impact: Positive SolGold reported drill results at its 85%-owned Cascabel project in northern Ecuador. The results are from the first seven holes targeting the Tandayama ...

Drill rig preparing to mobilise to Rio Amarillo to commence an initial 8000m Phase 1 Drilling Program. Completion of all regulatory permitting and camp facilities now supported by ...

In recent weeks, scouting efforts have been completed evaluating current operating conditions and access routes, ensuring readiness for the planned mobilization of drill ...

28 July 2025 SolGold plc ('SolGold' or the 'Company') Reports Multiple High-Grade Intervals at Tandayama-Am#233;rica as Part of Cascabel Execution Plan #183; First three holes confirm high ...

SolGold (LSE: SOLG) is pleased to report assay results from drill holes TAD-52, TAD-53, and TAD-54 at the Tandayama-Amer#237;ca ('Tandayama') deposit, part of the flagship ...

Planned drill rig deployment solgold

Intensive diamond drilling is planned for the next 12 months with up to 12 drill rigs operational. SolGold has drill tested 5 of 15 copper-gold targets delineated in the 50km² ...

As a first step in the plan, the Company has resolved to conduct a targeted drill program of 5,400 metres over 11 priority holes and up to 15 holes in total, which is budgeted at ...

Assays are pending for the remaining three holes, and further drilling is ongoing. This is a positive development for SolGold, as initial drilling at TAM encountered mineralization ...

Intensive diamond drilling is planned for the next 12 months with 12 drill rigs expected to be operational by early 2018, targeting 126,000m of drilling in 2018.

SolGold will launch a targeted 5 400-m drill campaign at Tandayama in early May, deploying three rigs to drill up to 15 holes, including ...

A further two man-portable rigs (Rigs 14 and 15) are under final construction & upgrade phase at the HP Drilling workshops, and are scheduled to join the Cascabel drilling ...

Visible copper-sulphide mineralisation continues to be encountered in Holes 14-16 (assay results pending) and drilling of Holes 17 and 18 is currently underway with two man ...

Web: <https://kwa-andries.co.za>